Chapter 2 by WideDreamer

In year 2030, humans had came to a blink of extinction. Dragons and many different kinds of monsters roam around the world, killing and eating humans. Year 2035, where 30% of the world's population had been wipe out by these monsters and dragons. Until in year 2040, humans had adapted magical powers which can be also use to change the world. Now, this year 2045, everything was destroyed, however some people still survive especially those people who have magic, they are called, "wizards". Some even made some groups, teams, etc. to survive. There are one popular and known as the strongest group of wizards, "Dark Knights" that's what they called., it is consist of 11 people, and even you wanted to join this group, you need to be strong first and even if you are, this group can't be found easily.

This story began one dark and cold night, a 16 years old girl who became a mage a week ago. She was walking as the wind passed by that swayed away her long black hair gently, you can see the wind, bow down the grasses and the grasses rise. The moon rose above the dark sky shining upon her, casting a shadow upon the ground. The girl was walking for several hours ad she is indeed tired, but she won't rest or give up until she found the group of the Dark Knights, she wanted them to pay for killing her parents. But, she's too weak and not to mention she wants to get stronger.

She saw a big tree, so she decided to rest for a while, even though she said she won't rest. She gradually opened her eyes. Then she saw the group of the Dark Knights standing in front of her.
